Alice,

The status report text would have been more accurately stated to read that the QAPP provides SOP references, which otherwise would require voluminous background attachments. It's no problem to modify the Progress Report text and re-issue if you like? I apologize for any confusion.

The progress report describes the UFP-QAPP and FSP as containing standard operating procedures (SOPs) from seven separate laboratories. I don't have the SOPs included in the PDF I downloaded from the EFT. Let me know if I missed something.
